Contract orders received worth Rs. 51.6 crores

Nashik, February 14, 2019: Karda Constructions Limited, a well-established Nashik based real estate developer, have recently entered into contractual construction, wherein the company bids for private and public projects in the field of real estate and infrastructure. The company has already received PWD license for the same.

The company has recently been awarded two work order contracts, the first contract is for construction of the building named “Hari Nakshatra” which is awarded by Shree Sainath Land & Development (India) Private Limited. The building construction contract is worth Rs. 41.26 crores and the same has to be completed within 24 months.

The second work order contract has been awarded by Viva Highways Ltd (Group company of Ashoka Buildcon) for Excavation, Plastering & Waterproofing work for Ashoka Business Conclave Building. The contract is worth 10.34 crores and the same has to be completed within 15 months.

The cumulative worth of the both the construction project is worth Rs. 51.61 crores. Currently, The company in total have contracts worth Rs. 114.76 crores including the above mentioned contracts. The forward integration to contractual construction, enables the company to mitigate the risk of dependency on the cyclical nature of real estate business, and also widens its reach across India with minimal capital requirements.
