Contract orders received worth Rs. 38.84 crores

Nashik, June 14, 2019: Karda Constructions Limited, a well-established Nashik based real estate developer, have recently entered into contractual construction, wherein the company bids for private and public projects in the field of real estate and infrastructure. The company has already received PWD license for the same.

The company has recently been awarded work order contract for construction of 115 Police quarters head quarter, City Police Station cum S.D.P.O. office for S.P. Buldhana at Buldaha District Buldhana including all infrastructure amenities from Maharashtra State Police Housing & Welfare Corpn Ltd for 24 months.

The worth of the construction project is worth Rs. 38.84 crores. The forward integration to contractual construction, enables the company to mitigate the risk of dependency on the cyclical nature of real estate business, and also widens its reach across India with minimal capital requirements. You are requested to kindly take the above information on your records.
